

The Abominable Snowman

Monday, 03 December 2007

The Abominable Snowman, or Yeti, is Nepal's Bigfoot. Yeti is just like Bigfoot, leaving large footprints and has never been proven to exist outside of mythology and folklore. But lately, Josh Gates, host of the Sci-Fi channel series "Destination Truth," has claimed that he found three big footprints on Nov. 28: one full print that measured about thirteen inches long, and two partial prints.
